ABOUT ME

I'm Klara Stein, a photographer, climber and storyteller who has found a second home on Kalymnos, working internationally. I'm passionate about capturing honest moments, movement and emotions.

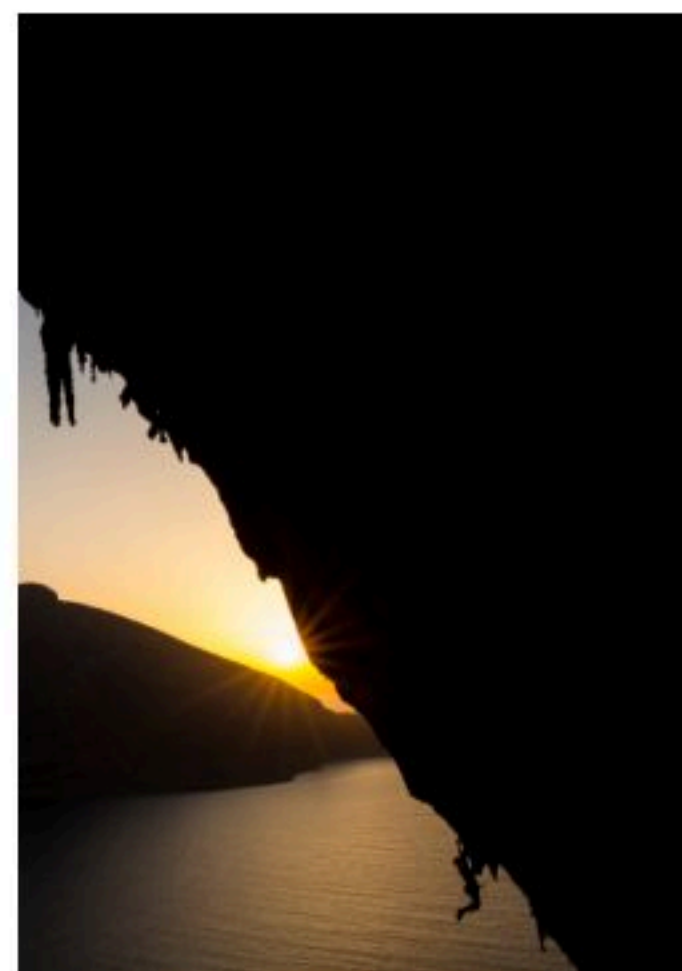

Years of living and working around the climbing world shaped the way I see people and stories. My photography is personal, natural and focused on creating images that feel alive rather than posed. Inspired by nature, movement and human connection, I aim to create photographs that bring you back to a feeling, not only a moment.

HOW I WORK

Every person, couple and project is different. I like to create a relaxed atmosphere where people can simply be themselves. Whether hanging on ropes beside a cliff, following a family during a quiet afternoon, or capturing a wedding day, I focus on real emotions and genuine interaction. I guide when needed, but the most beautiful images often happen naturally.

CLIMBING PHOTOGRAPHY

Climbing is where photography and passion meet for me. Being a climber myself helps me understand movement, timing and the feeling behind every route. I create dynamic action shots, personal climbing stories and brand imagery.

COUPLES & FAMILY

I love documenting people as they are: playful, connected and natural. Rather than stiff poses, I focus on laughter, small gestures and real moments together.

WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY

Weddings are about emotions, connection and all the little moments in between. I capture the atmosphere of the day in a documentary and personal way so memories feel authentic and timeless.
